WELCOME

Hello Eagles! We're happy to see everyone this evening. We're also happy to have heard from everyone who could not join us tonight. We would like to thank all of you who responded to our reunion requests. It was wonderful to read all of your notes, e-mails, and to chat with you on the telephone. We hope that you have a great time tonight and enjoy yourselves, your old friends, and your new friends. This reunion booklet is full of interesting and useful stuff. Use it like a new yearbook. Take notes in it or have your friends sign it, if you want to. After the reunion, or for those who brought their laptop here tonight, visit the class website and find your friends' e-mail addresses at www.modempool.com/krtodoroff.

Best Wishes,

Kurt Todoroff

Judy Wilkins Rich

HERE ARE THE THINGS THAT I WANT TO SHARE WITH EVERYONE:

Jane Abbott – Graduated NMU / Economics 1979. Graduated MSU / masters in labor & industrial relations 1989. Human Resource Mgr - 1990 to 1997.

Heidi Arntson – I miss you all!

Dolly Baker – Pursing, B.S. Degree at: Drexel University Philadelphia PA.

Chris Becker – Went to Michigan Tech - graduated 1981 lived in Florida, Tennessee and North Caroline from 1984 to 1997. Married Theresa in 1986.

Shirley Bowles – Although I worked for years in hospitality sales (visitors bureaus, hotels), my most rewarding job has been raising my daughter. My most difficult challenge was surviving a bout with breast cancer last year.

Cynthia Brenner – Enjoy living in the Upper Peninsula. Love to Fish and Deer Hunt. In the summer I live at my summer home on a lake.

Sheila Brown & Randy Taylor – Randy and I are high school sweethearts from Parkside High & have been married for 21 years.

Nancy Calderone – We have a beautiful son named Tony. He is full of spirit and love and is the joy of our lives.

Beth Eden – My children are grown. (YEAH!) My daughter is a hair designer. My son is a student at Michigan State. (Go Green) I am still madly in love with my husband of 21 years. Those are my greatest accomplishments so far . . .

Neal Eyler – Party hardy without me!

Garrett Griebenow – We're newlyweds, on Nov. 4th! ☺

THE PRESENT

Julie Guy – Performing artist with Ann Arbor based modern Dance Company 1979 - 92, dance teacher. This year - Led the design and implementation of the massive Loomis Park Playground community build.

Gay Hauter – I never did become the next Olivia Newton John - but I still sing every day!

Sharon Hessemer – I am enjoying my retirement immensely. For the first time since 1975 I am relaxing and discovering how good it feels.

Lisa Hocking – Yes, How many of you can say they had 3 children in one year (1992).

Dorothy Huffer – Actively involved in community, church, & volunteer work. Enjoy crafting.

Jane Johnston – Having a daughter in high school has brought back many memories of my days at Parkside! I helped my parents move this summer after 42 years in the same house, just across the street from Parkside. I have been living in the Chicago area for 20 years but still enjoy my visits to Jackson!

Michael Jones – I married Dave Driscoll's neighbor.

Kathy Kestner – Life: Awesome. As my kids would say “life is da bomb”! I feel incredibly fortunate. Give me a call!

Brenda Kimball – What really matters is how many people did we love & how many people did we show compassion for.

Ray King – My son just started Lumen Christi - I feel like a traitor. Oh well, I figured since we're not a high school anymore, I'd have to suck it up.

Sharon Kirkland – Be good to yourself and others because “LIFE IS SHORT”.

BJ Kramer – Married 22 years.

Deborah Lutes – Attended JCC 1975 - 1978; AA Data Processing; Hired into Consumers Sept. 1978 - Current.

Mark McCollom – I moved back to MI after 20 years.

Suzette Maria Morse – God has been very Good to me and my family. He has been there through all Trial & Tribulations.

Tom Norton – Don't take for granted, your family, your friends and the relationships that you have. Value all that you have because, as my good Irish friend always says, "life is short and its later than you think".

Garrett Griebenow – I was in the heart of the Amazon Jungle on graduation day. For Real!

Julie Guy – Mrs. Bueckers taking english students to see Alvin Ailey American Dance Co. perform at J.H.S. (1972?) auditorium. I went back the second night. I didn't even dance then, but it was transformational. Flash forward 1991 - I sat on a porch during a rainstorm at Jacobs Pillow in the Berkshires in Mass. Only dancer (from Mich.) accepted to this workshop of 50 and had a "thank you conversation" with his principle dancer Judith Jamieson (now aged 60).

Delores Harper – Not feeling too philosophical

Gay Hauter – I remember Mrs. Willoughby having trouble reading music with her glasses on - now I need bifocals too!

Sharon Hessemer – ? We graduated in 1975. Can anyone remember?

Lisa Hocking – Smoking on dirt road behind school! Also maybe smoking other stuff, too! But not now! Ha Ha.

Mark Horn – I don't. I slept thru highschool.

Dorothy Huffer – M & M parties. French club trip to Montreal.

Jane Johnston – The trip to Montreal with the French Club.

Michael Jones – It snowed in May the year we graduated. That's pretty cool!

Kathy Kestner – (I was never good @ "cool"). Earth shoes. Pet rocks. Long stringy hair. Bell bottoms. Burnt orange color was all the rage. Jill's mustang convertible. Spring break in florida - Drove straight through with Martha, Jill & Jan - Best time ever! * No way in hell would I let my little dumpling do that! *

Brenda Kimball – The "good guys" do finish first, it just takes time to see that. I love horses! Have some. I love animals & children. I love helping people heal mind, body & spirit!

RECOGNITION

Dear Eagles,

Judy and I wish to recognize those people who made this reunion possible.

Mike Farrar designed and printed the first color flyer that we mailed to you. Jacki Alger Staudacher lined up the DJ and Bullinger's for our casual evening. Ted Wray got the ball rolling.

Many of you responded to our mailings and e-mailings multiple times with information on classmates presumed lost in either deep space or somewhere in southern Texas. Your valuable contributions made the missing souls list much smaller than it was when we started this effort.

If Al Gore had not invented the Internet, our reunion turnout would have been dismal at best.

Kurt and Judy

Putting together all of the information needed to pull off this event was a tremendous endeavor, and Kurt came through at every turn!

I would like to thank you for the countless hours that you spent updating addresses, creating the invitations, creating this booklet, printing labels and envelopes, maintaining all of the e-mails being sent back and forth, and creating the class website. You are an awesome, beer slugging guy and it's been a pleasure working with you!

Charmed,

Judy Wilkins Rich

Finally, Judy Wilkins Rich's tireless energy and boundless enthusiasm kept our meetings and our reunion milestones realistic and accomplished. She insured that no detail went unnoticed. Beyond accomplishing a mountain of work, she coordinated other people's reunion activities, followed up on their progress, and administered punishment when necessary. Because of Judy, our meetings were light hearted, very productive, and full of cold beer. Judy, you're the best.

My gratitude.

Kurt Todoroff
