WELCOME

Hello Eagles! We're happy to see everyone this evening. We're also happy to have heard from everyone who could not join us tonight. We would like to thank all of you who responded to our reunion requests. It was wonderful to read all of your notes, e-mails, and to chat with you on the telephone. We hope that you have a great time tonight and enjoy yourselves, your old friends, and your new friends. This reunion booklet is full of interesting and useful stuff. Use it like a new yearbook. Take notes in it or have your friends sign it, if you want to. After the reunion, or for those who brought their laptop here tonight, visit the class website and find your friends' e-mail addresses at www.phs75.com.

Best Wishes,

Kurt Todoroff

HERE ARE THE THINGS THAT I WANT TO SHARE WITH EVERYONE:

Kathy Beers – We now spend half the year in the Cook Islands. Come visit us!

Shirley Bowles – The friends I made at Parkside are the greatest friends I have!

Michael Bridges – I am a candidate for Farmington Hills City Council

Bobbie Crouch – If you love someone, tell them. If you don't have anything good to say, keep quiet.

Martha Goldfarb – My life has had its ups and downs. I have phenomenal kids and a great job and I look forward to the best years yet to come.

Cynthia Grant – I ended up marrying my first love, who I met when I was 12 years old. We've been living happily ever after.

Julie Guy – Oldest son – B.S. . . . from C.M.U.. 5/05 Active in Western District where Chris works and children at WMS.

Gay Haueter – I wish I had gotten into teaching sooner! I've been at it for 6 years.

Rocky Hester – Life has been blessed!

Dorothy Huffer – Dale and I have been married 25 years as of April 5, 2005. Our son, Wayne, is a freshman at Michigan Technological University.

Bev Hurula – I wish I could be there to celebrate with everyone! I wish you all the best.

Mike Jones – I beat the odds!

Dave Kreske – That I have come to the conclusion that our purpose in life is to serve each other through a personal relationship with Jesus Christ.

Terry Nichols – I left Jackson in November 1975 and have only been back 3 times. Love Texas

THE PRESENT

Lori Patterson – Still not married, had chances, but the guy is either married or steady girlfriend.

Carol Pomeroy – Everything gets better with age Steve is still on the debate team

Dave Potts – I wish we had a president who know how to get along with other countries.

Richard Schaefer – 24+ years of marriage & still enjoying it! Extremely proud of my son . . . smarter than me! Recent brush with cancer; surgery & doing welll.

Lori Schairer – I am a Harley–Davidson owner!

Jeanne Scott – I divorced after 18 years of marriage and 7 years later, I have found the love of my life! I'm happy with my life and looking forward to the future.

Sue Sebastian – Can't belive its been 30ty years and my four Boys are also all graduated and experiencing reunions all four Boys graduated from Northwest.

Delores Walton – Just busy doing life – It was so great to see so many at the 25th!

Ted Wray – Won 2 national titles in Paddleball in 2005 When life seems troubling, do something nice for others . . It'll change your attitude.

Rudy Youell – I really miss Michigan

Becky Monroe wrote a wonderful letter to me from her home in Japan:

Hi Kurt,

Well I never got back to you. Yesterday was my last class and now I have a bit of a break for the summer. It may be too late to contribute anything to the reunion memory page, but I'll write to you anyway. Hope you don't mind.

Actually I wasn't expecting to hear so much about you and your family, but I was delighted to get to take a peek at what you've been doing since high school. I also find it hard to imagine having children who are already adults! I suppose, more than anything, it's that my children are younger than most of my classmates' children are that I have a hard time grasping I'm nearing 50! I still feel 17 inside most of the time!

My husband, Koji, and I met in Tokyo while I was working as an English teacher with a lay-missionary program with the Lutheran church. We'll be celebrating our 23rd anniversary at the end of August. When we met, he was in the process of graduating from university in Tokyo and received a scholarship to study at Hope College in Holland, MI for a year. So we spent our engagement with him in the US and me in Japan. That was confusing to people! After he returned to Japan, we lived in the Tokyo area. I was working full-time at a women's junior college while he was both working and deciding what to do about his Masters. He worked at the Panamanian Embassy in Tokyo for a time. He also worked for Quality Control for Montgomery Ward's Tokyo office. Neither of these really suited him. So he went back to complete his MA in American Literature.

After our first child was born, we decided to get out of Tokyo, and relocated north to the city of Sendai. It's on the Pacific Ocean about midway between Tokyo and Misawa. We started our own Language and Communication Services business after one year in Sendai, and in addition to that, we both teach part-time at several universities and colleges in the Sendai area.

Here's a bit about our children. Emi, a soon-to-be 18 year old girl. She'll graduate from high school in March 2006, and is now concentrating on what university and which department to gear up for the entrance examinations. The competition to enter is tough here, so she's not her usual cheery self right now. Kie, will soon be 15, and is another girl. She's our athlete and is now training for the relay-marathon (sorry, I don't recall the real English term for this event). Like Emi, she'll have to be taking entrance exams for getting into high school come spring 2006. Amon, will be 12 soon, and is our only boy. He loves baseball, follows Ichiro Suzuki and Hideo Matsui everyday. He also likes Social Studies and after he reads one of his historical biographies, tells me all about it. Erin, is my 10-year-old girl, who talks non-stop and has a keen sense of fairplay amongst all the siblings! (I might add that the children all are in Japanese schools, and all of them are bi-lingual -to some degree or other. Emi's the only one who can handle both languages fairly equally (although she cannot do math or science in English because of the terminology). Kie can handle both, but she prefers Japanese. And both Amon and Erin understand English, most of the time, but they never speak it at all.)

Besides work and family Koji and I are involved in community services. Koji is part of an environmental watchdog effort against industrial waste in our immediate area. We live in the most northern part of Sendai. It's very rural and most of our neighbors are 3 or 4-generation households that farm. It's so beautiful to see the mountains and emerald rice fields all around our house. However, there are, I think, at least 5 industrial waste businesses within a 5 km radius. Almost as soon as we built our house and moved in 10 years ago, we realized the illegal practices going on. So Koji's been very active with a few other neighbors on keeping track of how the waste is being handled. We've just finished a lawsuit which lasted about 3 years, I think. And even though our side "won," we can't sit back and assume everything will be just fine from now on..

As for me, I've been involved in La Leche League, an international breastfeeding support network. I started a group here in Sendai about 14 years ago. In the beginning I didn't think I could do it in Japanese, but it turns out that I was able to. Now our group has 4 Japanese Leaders, and they are able to do so many things that I never could because of my language limitations. For over 10 years I worked at the LLL Japan level, training mothers to become accredited Leaders. (I worked with a few who were based at Misawa, in fact!) Now I'm serving as an administrator for LLL Future Areas in Asia, and thanks to the internet, I can work instantaneously with women all over the world.

This got windier than I thought it would. If you think anyone'd be interested in it, please pass it on. If you'd like to just cut and paste pertinent parts, that's fine by me, too. And, of course, it may be too late to do anything at all. That's okay. I just had a good time writing, knowing that I am writing to someone I knew when I was a kid! I can count on one hand how often I've done that!!

HERE IS SOMETHING REALLY COOL THAT I REMEMBER:

Kathy Beers – The reunions have been great. I salute the organizers, keep up the good work! Hope to make it to another one some time.

Bobbie Crouch – Playing Frisbee with Beth Eden.

Martha Goldfarb – The cow's leg in Mr. Raczkowski's psychology class!

Cynthia Grant – My friend, Cara Stille, putting bleach on the front of my hair & leaving it on too long. I looked like a skunk & had to wear a visor - even at night, until it was long enough to cut off.

Gay Haueter – Taking actual driving classes! They don't offer those classes in Atlanta.

Bev Hurula – Morning & evening swim practices, running track, accompanying the choir. Parkside offered wonderful extracurricular activities & lots of great times with friends!

Mike Jones – I lost my memory in 1987

Dave Kreske – Weekend excursions to nubs nob and old perry-davis hotel.

Terry Nichols – Great senior year, lot of fun times

THE PRESENT

---

Lori Patterson – Loved going to the pep rallies on Friday's before the game that night, and going to the games as well.

Carol Pomeroy – Mr. Mesko's donuts. I still can't pass up a good sticky donut..

Dave Potts – That Nixon had to resign in 1974 because he did respect the rule of law.

Rich Schaefer – Mesko's class & Hinkley's Donuts!

Jeanne Scott – High school was a blur and life since has had many ups & downs. What I remember is the awesome band we had that inspired energy & team spirit. Music is still a great joy to me.

Sue Sebastian – Parties at Cherry-Stink Bomb. Drinking at 18. Long Hair, Moon Shoes, Rod Stewart who I'm still in love with. Jackson High Football Games

Ted Wray – Playing sports and the experience of eating at Bill Knapps afterwards.

Rudy Youell – Stink bomb
